

9 MARCH 2010

Coordinated by the Eastern Sydney Libraries Cooperative and the State Library of NSW.

www.randwick.nsw.gov.au/library

www.woollahra.nsw.gov.au/library

www.waverley.nsw.gov.au/library/

www.botanybay.nsw.gov.au/library

www.sl.nsw.gov.au

ENGLISH BIOLOGY INTERACTIVE TECHNOLOGY STUDIES OF RELIGION SCHOOL CERTIFICATE

SR110220100002

HSC & EDUCATION FORUM

ENGLISH BIOLOGY INTERACTIVE TECHNOLOGY STUDIES OF RELIGION SCHOOL CERTIFICATE

	time	session	place	lecturer
	9.00am - 9.15am	Registration	Library Foyer
	9.15am - 9.20am	Welcome	Metcalfe Auditorium
	9.20am - 10.00am	Sites for Sore Eyes: A selection of useful websites for students and library professionals.	Metcalfe Auditorium	Lyndon Sharp holds the position of Manager, Information Services Office of the Board of Studies NSW. He is an ex-history teacher and the manager of publishing and educational website development for the Board of Studies.
	10.00am - 10.40am	Studies of Religion: Ancient traditions and modern surprises.	Metcalfe Auditorium	Jonathan Noble is a senior teacher of Studies of Religion at the MLC school and an HSC marker and judge. He was the contributing editor to the Cambridge Studies of Religion textbook which was awarded the AEPA award in 2009.
	10.40am - 11.00am	Morning tea	Metcalfe Auditorium
	11.00am - 11.40am	Supporting HSC — PDHPE	Metcalfe Auditorium	Stan Browne is the NSW Board of Studies Inspector for PDHPE. Stan has taught PDHPE in schools for 20 years and in his current role at the Board of Studies is responsible for the overall leadership and ongoing management of the PDHPE curriculum for all schools in NSW.

	time	session	place	lecturer
	11.40am - 12.20pm	The School Certificate: An outline with reference to useful resources.	Metcalfe Auditorium	Michael Hayes has taught in NSW schools for over 30 years. He is Director of Studies at MLC School in Burwood and is responsible for compliance, assessment and school-based research.
	12.20pm - 1.20pm	Lunch		Visit one of the many cafes in the business district adjacent to the State Library.
	1.20pm - 2.20pm	Mind Over Module: The English Syllabus 'Unplugged'	Metcalfe Auditorium	Lucy Swiatek is writing her doctoral thesis and teaching English at Macquarie University. She has taught many different areas of scholarship, including primary, secondary and tertiary curriculums, and currently coordinates the English department at an HSC tuition centre.
	2.20pm - 3.00pm	HSC—Biology	Metcalfe Auditorium	Stephen Hitchings is a Biology teacher at Strathfield Girls High School, HSC exam marker and a co-author of Biology Options: Genetics The Code Broken .
	3.00pm - 3.20pm	Afternoon tea	Metcalfe Auditorium
	3.20pm - 4.00pm	Public libraries providing support for HSC students via resource development and lecture programs.	Metcalfe Auditorium	Presented by Joan Ingram — Reference Officer, Singleton Public Library, Lydia Smith — Children's Services Coordinator, Mid-Western Regional Council Library, Katherine Mitchell — Information Access Librarian, Parramatta Library and Surrinder Kaur — Reference Librarian, Coffs Harbour City Library.